

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

HARD TO SECURE JURY

Amory Trial Started in York County Circuit Court Yesterday.

HAMPTON ATTORNEYS IN THE CASE

Mr. Lewis Assailing in the Prosecution and Mr. Collier is Representing the Defendant—Accused and the Man He Shot Are Cousins.

After spending nearly all of the time of the court yesterday in endeavoring to secure a jury to try Leroy Amory for shooting his cousin, R. C. Amory, the York County Circuit Court adjourned last evening with twelve men in the jury box. It will be necessary to secure four more jurors today, and from the sixteen twelve will be selected.

The case, which is attracting wide spread attention in York county, was taken up before Judge D. Gardner Tyler during the afternoon session and the work of selecting the jury was immediately entered into. It is said that an additional venire of sixteen men was summoned to appear in court when it reconvenes this morning at 10:30 o'clock. It is probable that the case will be concluded by Friday or Saturday afternoon.

Commonwealth's Attorney Conway Shields is being assisted in the prosecution by Mr. Burdette A. Lewis, of Hampton, while Mr. P. S. Collier, of this city, is defending the accused man.

Leroy Amory and Robert Amory, the principals in the shooting, are first cousins and the prominence of the two families is adding interest to the outcome of the trial in York and Elizabeth City counties. Robert was shot in the side of the head last spring by Leroy, who contends that he resorted to his gun in self-defense. It is said that the two cousins had long been enemies and that bad blood had existed between them for the past several years. Both were engaged in the bottling of soda water and Leroy contends that Robert wrote him threatening letters.

The home of Mrs. J. H. Crone, Malory avenue, was the scene of a very pretty wedding yesterday evening at 6 o'clock when their daughter, Miss Mabel Crone became the bride of Mr. George William Wray, Jr. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and plants, the color scheme being green and white. Just before the bride entered the parlor, Miss Laura Bittingham sang very sweetly, "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms," accompanied by Miss Ruth Crone, sister of the bride. At the close of the solo the bride entered the parlor, while Lohengrin's wedding march was being rendered by Mrs. H. A. Rountree.

The bride was attended by Miss Eadie Tennis as maid of honor, while Mr. George W. Guy acted as best man. Rev. George W. Wray, father of the groom, officiated. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of dark blue cloth with hat and gloves to match and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a gown of white mull and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride's party was tendered a reception by the bride's parents, after which the bride and groom left for an extended northern trip.

Mrs. Wray is a young woman of rare musical talent and for several years has been organist of the First Methodist Episcopal church. The groom is the eldest son of Rev. Geo. W. Wray, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, of this city. On account of illness in the family the wedding was very quiet, only the members of the immediate families being present.

BAPTISTS TO USE GAS FOR HEATING CHURCH

Congregation of Hampton Church Decides to Try Experiment During Coming Winter.

The congregation of the Hampton Baptist church last night decided to heat the main auditorium and the Sunday school rooms during the coming winter with gas, instead of using a furnace as has heretofore been the case. The church is inclined to the opinion that gas will prove a cheaper fuel than coal or wood and the experiment is to be tried immediately.

Messrs. Charlton L. Hickman and James Tennis were elected ushers for the coming year.

Routine business was also attended to.

AFTER THE SALOONS ON OLD POINT RESERVATION

Auditor of the State Desires to Know Why Government Reservation Bars Pay No State License.

The question as to whether or not the saloons on Old Point are taxable under the state laws has again been raised by the auditor's office of Virginia and it is likely that the matter will now be passed upon by the highest authorities in the state.

In a letter to Commissioner of the Revenue Harry Wise Booker the auditor wants to know why the bars on the Old Point reservation are not required to take out a state license. He asks the commissioner to send him full details of the conditions relative to licenses on the reservation. There are three places at Old Point where liquors are dispensed—Hotel Chamberlin, Sherwood Inn and Fort Monroe officers' club.

Mr. Booker has replied to the commissioner giving the details of the conditions around Old Point. It has never been the custom here to assess a license tax against the saloons on the reservation, inasmuch as the privilege is granted by the government and not through the state channels.

However, it is now believed that the recent action of the auditor in bringing the matter up again will result in a speedy settlement of the long discussed liquor dispute concerning Old Point.

Stop Women And Consider

This Fact—that in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers twenty-five years.

The present Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, was for years under her direction, and has ever since her decease continued to advise women.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty causes them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. Such questioning and examination is unnecessary. Without cost you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

MRS. PINKHAM'S STANDING INVITATION:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
